

Now Hiring: High School Biology Teacher

Utah International Charter School is a unique small secondary school soon to enter its 10th year of operation in South Salt Lake City. Our mission is to empower English language learners in grades 6 to 12, including refugees, immigrants, and American-born students, with rigorous academic content made accessible to all students in a student-centered environment. We are seeking a highly qualified biology teacher to join our teaching team for the 2022-23 school year and beyond. Utah International employees must be committed to shared leadership, continuous professional growth, and creating a school community that supports and advances best practices in instruction for language acquisition, cognitive development, student engagement and social growth. We offer small class sizes and low course loads for teachers, supportive colleagues, and extraordinary students.

Responsibilities

Plan and implement accessible and challenging curriculum and daily lessons in biology and academic advisory.
Manage a caring, respectful, student-centered classroom.
Work effectively with diverse English language learners.
Participate meaningfully in teacher team and professional development activities.
Other duties as assigned.

Qualifications

Bachelor's degree or higher (by August 2022).
Current Utah secondary educator license and endorsement in biology.
We will consider unlicensed candidates with other strong qualifications (biology or related major or minor without teaching credentials), if they can become licensed the near future.
Ability to work effectively with a teacher team, to exercise creativity, self-direction and leadership, and to thrive in a diverse environment.

Compensation

Competitive with local districts. See salary schedule at <http://www.utahinternational.org>.
Salary bonus ($2500) for highly qualified science teachers.
Health insurance and retirement plan.

Application

Apply on Teachers-Teachers.com or via email to Angie Rowland: arowland@utahinternational.org. Don't forget your cover letter, and please review our website at utahinternational.org for information about the school. Cover letter should summarize your qualifications and explain your interest in the position.
